VOLUME 57

LEBANON, TENNESSEE

In the Guidance Office of our school, there is a person who, because of her genuine concern for every student at LHS, is always willing to listen and to help. Through her kindness this person has gained the respect and admiration of students and faculty alike. She is especially dear to the Class of '80 whom she has guided and encouraged through the past four years. So with love and gratitude, the 1980 SOUVENIR staff dedicates this year's book to Mrs. Colleen Key. Thank you for all you've done, and we love you.

SOUVENIR STAFF '80

Even though school is out for summer vacation, the SOUVENIR staff is hard at work selling ads, working on ideas, and preparing for the next year's yearbook. These students give their time and talents to compile a collection of memories that is truly a SOUVENIR of high school days at LHS.

They say time flies when you're having fun,
But it also flies when you're not.
For the past four years are over and done,
And togehter we've been through a lot.

In the beginning four years was a mountainous climb,
And time crawled and creeped and stood still,
But looking back we flew through that time,
And our mountain wasn't even a hill.

Now that they're done, memories will fade,
But we can't let them disappear.
So just to remind you of good times, not bad,
We've presented this SOUVENIR.

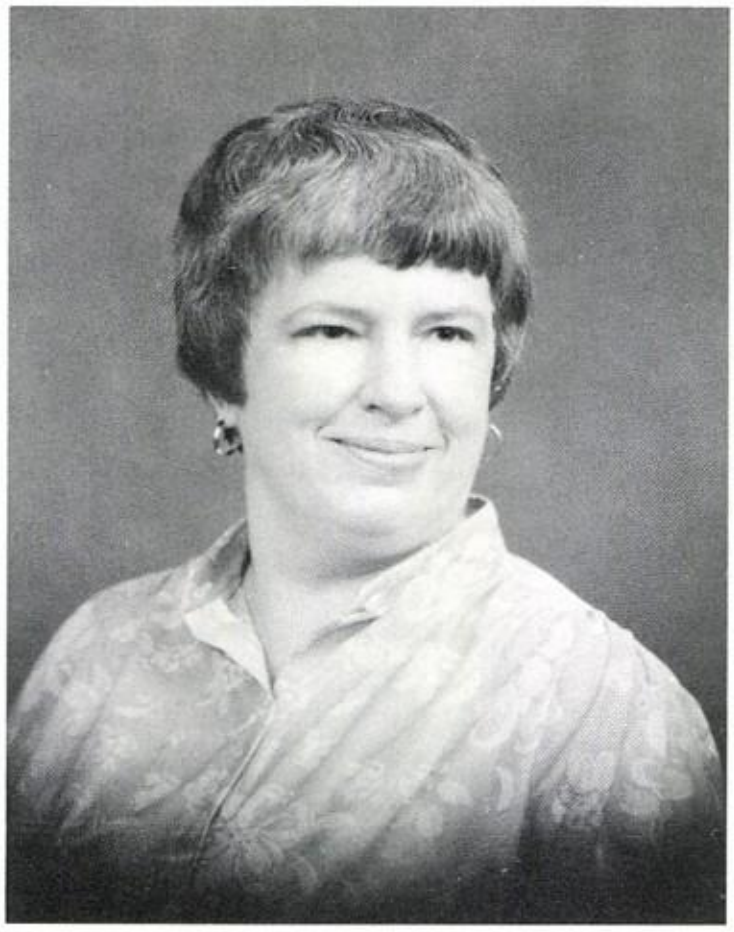
ADMINISTRATION

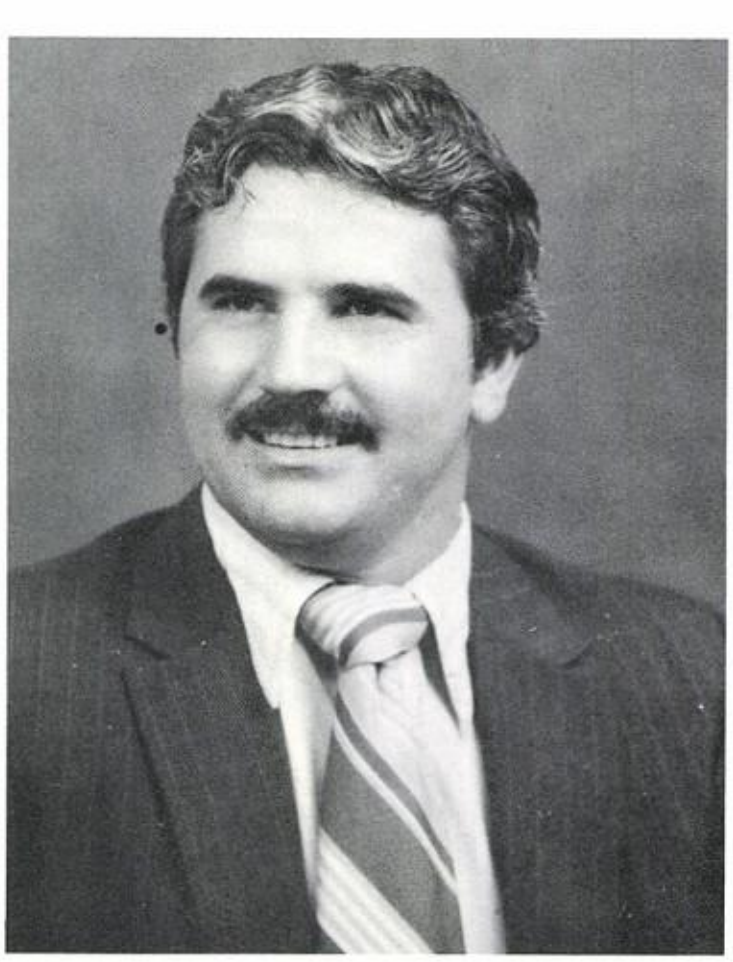


Nancy Cook, Assistant Principal

Mrs. Nancy Cook is the female member of the Lebanon High School administration. She attended Mayfield High School in Mayfield, Kentucky and furthered her education at Murray State University.

Mrs. Cook began her teaching career at Draughon's College where she stayed for six years before coming to Lebanon in the fall of 1973. At Lebanon High, she taught business classes and was the SOUVENIR sponsor for two years.

In 1976 she accepted her position as assistant principal. She enjoys her new position but misses being in contact with the various students.



W. A. Wright, III, Assistant Principal

Mr. Wright has been teaching school for the past eight years. Before coming to Lebanon High School, he taught at Dupont Junior High School. He also taught at Donelson High School and coached baseball at Tennessee Tech before coming to Lebanon High.

He played baseball for the San Diego Padres and was an All-American athlete in college baseball and basketball. In 1967 he traveled to the Olympic games with the United States baseball team. He, along with his teammates, won a gold medal.

Among his special interests are hunting, golfing, tennis, basketball, and softball. His most treasured possession is his family—his wife, Judy, and two sons.

CLASS OF '80

It was August 24, 1976, and the Bicentennial celebration had finally ended. The Class of '80 arrived at Lebanon High School for the first day of their freshman year. When election time came around John Sloan was elected president of the class. Other officers were as follows: Carol Bennett, vice-president; Lisa Johnson, secretary; and Karen Angus, treasurer. Shondrai Shockley was elected as sgt.-at-arms. Ricky Miller and Lora Johnson were elected as Class Favorites. John Bryan was chosen to represent the class as executive member of Student Council. Robbie Dedman was chosen as the freshman attendant at the homecoming activities. Jimmy Harris was her escort. That year the class won the first place championship in intramurals by defeating the senior class in the finals. The boys' basketball team became District Champions that year.

The spring musical was "Lil' Abner." John Bryan gave an excellent performance as a major character in the play.

Summer came around and the class was given their first long vacation in high school. They returned in the fall of '77 as sophomores. However, they were given another long vacation shortly after Christmas and missed a total of 24 days of school because of snow and bad road conditions. That year John Sloan was again elected to serve as president of the class. The vice-presidential position was filled by Robbie Dedman while the class elected Karen Angus secretary. Connie Tribble and Ricky Miller were elected treasurer and sgt.-at-arms respectively. Leigh Ann Harper represented the class as executive member of Student Council. Lora Johnson represented the class at the homecoming activities and was escorted by John Sloan. It was a good year for the girls' basketball team. They were runners-up in the state competition.

The spring musical was "Bravo Broadway," with Lisa Coffee, Don Hutchinson, and Andy Taylor filling major roles.

As juniors the class of '80 elected Andy Taylor president. Ricky Miller was elected vice-president and Donna Lea became the new secretary. Leigh Ann Harper was elected treasurer and Troy Putman filled the position of sgt.-at-arms. Shondrai Shockley and Ricky Miller were chosen as Class Favorites. Lora Johnson again represented her class at homecoming and was escorted by Gary Bradshaw. The Junior class float won first place that year, defeating the traditional winner, the Senior class. A homecoming court for basketball was selected and Tesa Armistead and John Bryan represented the class. A revised dress code was placed in effect during their reign as juniors. Sandy Maynard returned to school during the second semester after recovering from an immobilizing car accident. As of last year, our girls' basketball team has made it to the state tournaments two years in a row. Because of her hard work and dedication to the team, Gail Corder was named to the All-State Team her junior year. Lebanon High School was spotlighted on Channel 5 during the spring of 1979.

The spring musical that year was "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to The Forum." Lisa Coffee and Don Hutchinson had major roles and performed very well.

In the fall of 1979, Sandra Carney and Russ Brown were chosen National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalists. It was a rare honor for Lebanon High School to have two recipients of this award.

GRADUATION

My cap is too big.
My gown is too short.
Swap with a neighbor.
Get in line.
(My knees are shaking.)
Did they call my name?
Twenty steps across the gym—
Take diploma with the left,
Shake hands with the right.
Twenty more steps—
Don't trip!
Where was I sitting?
Try not to cry.
(It's a joyful occasion.)
Don't laught.
(It's a serious occasion.)
Alma Mater.
Can't sing—
My voice might crack.
March out—
Head high,
Mind drained.
You're an adult.

The academically-inclined seniors of Lebanon High School are honored during their last semester of school by being named to the Top Ten Percent. Because they have maintained high grade averages, these students are very deserving of their recognition. As a reward for their participation in school activities and the excellence of their school work, these students are allotted special parking places and are exempt from the final exams.

(YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL)

The Youth Advisory Council is open to concerned students who wish to improve relations between the cafeteria staff and the student body. They suggest menus, decorate the cafeteria, and act as a go-between with the cafeteria staff and LHS students. Because the club was organized late in the year, a picture was not available of the club members.

A PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM FOR YOUNG AMERICANS

Six students were chosen as delegates to A Presidential Classroom for Young Americans. They were Mike Hankins, Jack Magaw, Tracey Parks, Robin Townsend, Jenni White, and Becky Hurd (not pictured). Our delegates spent a week in Washington, D. C. studying our government, sight seeing, and meeting a wide variety of people.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

Ten LHS students were representatives to Boys' and Girls' State this summer. These programs give students the chance to participate in a mock government situation. Participating in Boys' State were: John Bryan, Jacky Corder, Jerry Figgins, Kelvin Moxley, Craig Pitts, Clark Sampson, Andy Taylor, and Jonathan White. Sandy Ward and Melanie Watson attended Girls' State.

Lebanon—Tuesday, January 22, 1980, was a big day in the life of Coach Campbell Brando[illegible] as coach of the Lebanon High Devil[illegible] a plateau seldom attained by ma[illegible] win.

After the winning game, Brandon was [illegible] ceremony at midcourt. He was presented a huge [illegible]ake, and the game ball.

The win increased Coach Brandon's career record to an impressive 400 wins, and a meager 95 losses. Lebanon High is very lucky to have this responsible and multi-talented Coach.

The Lebanon High grapplers began their season by losing their first four matches. They made a comeback at a match with Oakland High and won the next two matches, giving them a 3 and 4 record. The Devils alternated wins and losses with other teams during the rest of the season. They finished with a record of eight wins and seven losses. The grapplers placed fourth in the Shelbyville Invitational, and second place in the District Tournament.

Terrance Collins placed first in both the Shelbyville Invitational and the District Tournament. Collins placed fourth in Region competition, which qualified him for the State Tournament in the 98 pound division.

John Sloan placed first at the Shelbyville Invitational in the 132 pound division, while Jon Carlton took first at the District Tournament in the 126 pound division.

Wilson County
Vocational School

The Wilson County Vocational School is now in its fourth year of operation. It provides educational needs for students interested in going to work upon graduation from high school. A student at the Vocational Center can acquire skills in appliance repair, auto mechanics, millwork, masonry, general metals, or electricity and electronics. Knowledge and skills in business may also be obtained through such courses as: health occupations, cooperative education, commercial foods, distributive education, and occupational home economics. All courses offered at the center are two and three hour blocks and are worth two and three credits, respectively.

PEP RALLIES

LHS pep rallies give students an opportunity to show their spirit. Everyone has a chance to get involved while the band performs songs that require student body participation. "Yelling," "Noise," "Pyramids," "Chanting," "Applauding," "Speeches," "Cheers," "Alma Mater,"—These are just a few words to describe a pep rally at LHS.

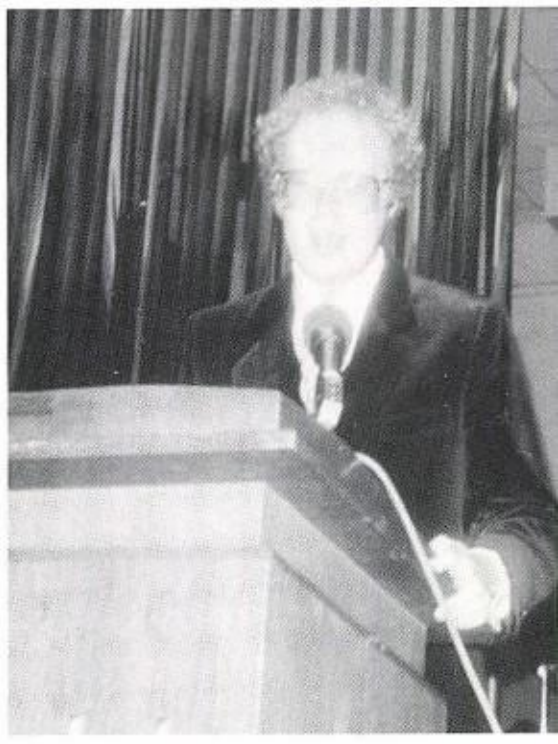
SENIOR NIGHT

Teresa and DeAnna work on flowers for the centerpieces.



Mr. Edwards, the emcee.

One evening in the fall, all seniors and their parents are honored with Senior Night, an annual event sponsored by the SOUVENIR staff and the Student Council. During this gala evening, Senior Superlatives are announced and honored with a plaque. Seniors look forward to this special occasion each year when they can get together, celebrate, reminisce, and enjoy being a senior.

A Ligon monologue.

Mrs. Lawlor presents the DAR award to Sandy.

Our beginning is in our end,
And our tomorrows in our yesterdays.
Our future is in our past,
And our past is in our future.
By looking back we may see
What has been and what shall be.
Memories are the key to our future.
